BUREAU D'ACCUEIL INTERNATIONAL (BAI)

The 'Bureau d'Accueil International' is a central University service that helps every Exchange Student arrive and settle in Limoges. They can help you with:

- Finding accommodation and housing.
- Opening a bank account.
- Getting health and housing insurance.
- Undertaking administrative formalities.
- Exploring Limoges and its surroundings.

SERVICE RELATIONS INTERNATIONALES (ARTS AND HUMANITIES)

Our office is located within the Faculté des Lettres et Sciences Humaines. (Ground floor, Building C, office 012) Our team is composed of Marlène Frugier (Administrative Coordinator); Said Ouaked (Departmental Coordinator and Vice-Dean for International Affairs), and a Student Intern.

We can help you with:

- Choosing courses and enrolling in classes.
- Student Card services.
- Administrative paperwork (Learning Agreement, Certificate of Attendance, etc).

If you arrive from Limoges Airport (10km from City Centre), know that there is no shuttle to the city centre. Taxi companies however can get you from the airport to the City Centre for approximately 20€. (Limoges Taxi: +33 555 38 38 38)

The coach station is located next to the train station; therefore see the information and bus fare concerning the trip from Gare Bénédictins.

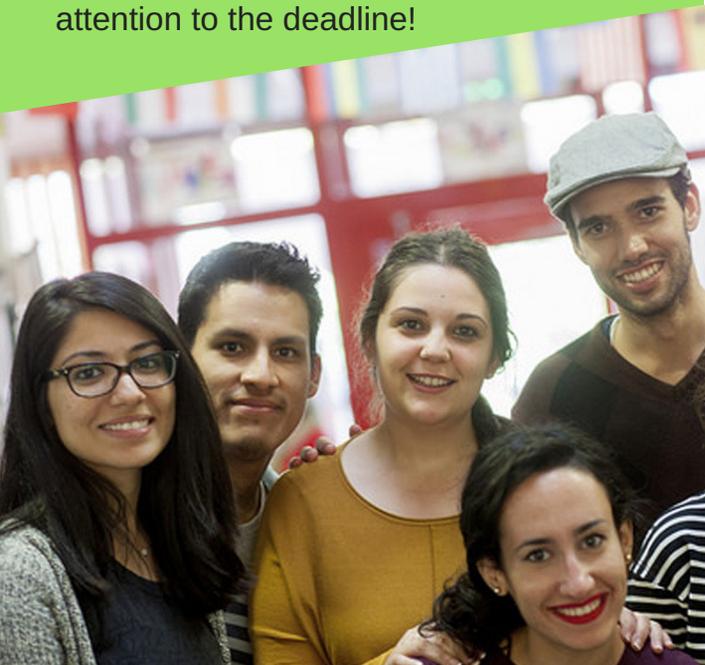

For more information about arrival and possibly getting picked up, get in touch with the Limouzi International Student Association. \(L.I.S.A\)

Housing

EXCHANGE LIMOGES

The Bureau d'Accueil International is a central University service. It is here to help you find accommodation:

- 1) All Exchange students attending Limoges University can apply for a pre-booked en-suite bedroom or studio.
- 2) In order to apply for student housing, you must fill in the form.
- 3) This reservation will be confirmed once the deposit (360€ for studios, 240€ for bedrooms) has been paid. Pay attention to the deadline!

HALLS OF RESIDENCE

Halls offer :

- Bedrooms (rent includes utilities such as electricity, water and heating). Only the kitchen is a communal area and is equipped with a microwave, an oven and hot plates.
- Studios (utilities not included) offer more space, a private shower and bathroom and a kitchenette.

A security deposit (one month rent) will be asked upon entry and given back upon leaving.

Certain residences also give access to many services and facilities such as: a self-service laundromat, a TV room, snack machines.

The main halls are:

- Vanteaux: rooms and studios on campus of Arts and Humanities. Within a minute walk from the Faculty, library and restaurant; and five minute walk to the VANTEAUX bus stop.
- La Borie: rooms located on the Science campus; approximately 15-20 minutes away from campus by bus 14 (stop FACULTÉ).

Tips

- Internet subscription for the year (in halls) only costs 8€. Internet can be accessed using an Ethernet cable*
- While you have access to a kitchen, kitchenware and pans are not provided. Microwaves are provided in communal kitchens (not studios).
- In order to retrieve your keys, a proof of housing insurance is mandatory.

*only applies to Halls of Residence as of Aug 2016. Internet is free within all buildings of the Faculty and University.
