

Migration in the EU: economic perspectives

Course code: LUEES51E

1. Course instructor

Denis-Henri Faguet

Contact: dhenrif@gmail.com

Researcher in Social and Policy Sciences, Bath
University

R&D Head at Lucine SAS, Bordeaux

2. Course description

Contact hours	Credits	Term
12 hours	3 ECTS	Spring

Prerequisites: None

Objectives and skills

Better understanding of the complexity of the migration problematic.

Develop critical thinking.

Make a 15 min. presentation evaluated by both the teacher and the peers.

Produce a presentation mixing SPS, History, IR, Economics, Laws, documents (e.g. articles, video, etc.).

Course description

Each lecture will be divided into one hour on theoretical aspects and one hour of workshop (discussions, videos, news articles and documents) aiming at:

- Analysing the Politics of Migration and Immigration in Europe
- Understanding the impacts on the EU Economic activities

3. Course material

Reference/reading Materials:

Andrew Geddes, The Politics of Migration and Immigration in Europe, Second Edition 2016 | 288 pages | SAGE Publications Ltd, Chapter 1 (text will be provided to the students)

4. Course assessment

Assessment details

Attendance and oral presentation in class (67%)

Evaluation of oral presentation by peers (33%)

5. Course structure

1st hour : theoretical aspects

2nd hour : workshop on videos, documents, articles...

Lecture # 1: Migrations and European history

Lecture # 2: Migrations and European political challenges

Lecture # 3: Economic perspectives I

Lecture # 4: Economic perspectives II

Lecture # 5: Oral presentations

Lecture # 6: Oral presentations